Key ideas

- Gender budgeting ;
- Prone to equality and equity or not?
- Peruvian option;
- Uruguayan option;
- Canadian option;
- What would be yours?

Gender budgeting

- Could be part of the budget preparation, during the execution or at the moment of the evaluation;
- Is not more than an audit of the spending and the taxation of the state and verifying how these policies affect differently men and women;
- In its simpler expression, it is a sex-disaggregated evaluation of the impact by beneficiaries and on the payroll.

Prone to equity and equality?

Public actions can be:

- Prone to equity and equality;
- Prone to inequity and inequality;
- Specific to one sex.

mfilion@ign.quebec

Peruvian option

- A committee in each organization of the State in charge of doing the gender audit, planning the affirmative measures and evaluate progress of the situation of the women in their sector.

mfilion@ign.quebec

Uruguayan option

A set of practices, a step-by-step, to auditing the situation of women in each sector.

Canadian option

A transversal policy and an almost compulsory e-learning to be followed by each agent of the State.

And what's yours?

- Committee?
- Norms and rules?
- Capacity building?
